Dear _____

Nominator Title: _____

CONGRATULATIONS! On behalf of the Charlotte Teachers Institute (CTI), an educational partnership among the University of North Carolina at Charlotte, Davidson College, the Yale National Initiative, and Charlotte-Mecklenburg Schools, it is an honor to inform you that you have been officially nominated to apply for the 2012 Seminars.

The Charlotte Teachers Institute has impacted over 150 teachers and 15,000 students among 50 CMS schools. In 2012 CTI plans to offer another round of engaging seminars on topics ranging from the science of NASCAR to teaching math through magic, and the lives of African American writers to understanding American political parties.

Just to highlight a few things you will accomplish as a CTI Fellow:

- You will be recognized as a professional educator and granted access to the library and facilities to both UNC Charlotte and Davidson Campuses.
- You will produce a Curriculum Unit designed to work with your particular students. You will be a recognized author with your unit being published on both CTI's website and the Yale National Initiative website.
- You will receive three Continuing Education Units (CEUs) and a $1500 stipend for participation.

To officially accept this nomination, please send an email to scott.gartlan@uncc.edu. He will send you information about the application process and details about the upcoming Local Open House on Thursday, March 1, 2012. (Accepting the nomination does not lock you into any responsibilities or guarantee you as a fellow).

As a CTI Fellow said this year, "It's simple: CTI is the best professional development I've ever had. Period." We are confident that you will have a similar experience. Please visit our website for more information at: <http://charlotteteachers.org/>

Sincerely,
