

Implementing the Common Core Standards for Social Studies

The Common Core Standards are addressed in unit. The students will analyze primary and secondary source documents to help understand the significant laws and views pertaining to immigration.

The students will also be evaluating multiple sources to help solve a problem or come up with a solution.

The students will also be writing opinions based on primary source and secondary source readings to help further their understanding of immigration and immigration policies in U.S. history.

From: <http://www.corestandards.org/ELA-Literacy/RH/11-12>