

Invite you to a special

Evening for Educators

Thursday, February 13, 2014

4:45 – 6:30 pm

Spaugh Professional Development Center (1901 Herbert Spaugh Lane)

Learn about Engaging Curriculum Units for Your Students

Created by CMS Teachers in CTI Seminars for

All grade levels: K-12 – Math, Science, Humanities, Arts and More!

Curriculum Unit Gallery Crawl 4:45-5:15 pm

Enjoy light snacks and view CTI Fellows' Curriculum Unit displays

CTI Curriculum Unit Presentations 5:15-6:30 pm

Science

Physics in Film

Deb Semmler, Physics, East Mecklenburg High School

Exploring the Planets: What If? How Come? And Why?

Julie Ruziska Tiddy, 6th Grade Science, Carmel Middle School

A Sky System – Sun, Earth and Moon

Cindy Woolery, Science, Elizabeth Traditional Elementary

With CTI Seminar Leader Susan Trammell, Physics, UNC Charlotte

Humanities

The Bodies of Art – Art, Media and Body Norms

Barbara Wesselman, Costume Design and Apparel, Northwest School of the Arts

Teaching Post-Civil War History in Document-Based Fiction

Alex Edwards, Social Studies, Bailey Middle School

Responsible Citizens Speak Out

Torrieann Dooley, 2nd Grade, David Cox Road Elementary School

Math

Seeing the Fun in Functions

Kristianna Luce, Math, North Mecklenburg High School

Surviving Dragon City by Knowing Operations with Rational Numbers

Mike Pillsbury, Secondary Math Specialist, CMS

Fractions Aren't Freaky

Lyndsay Burns, 4th Grade, David Cox Road Elementary School

With CTI Seminar Leader Tim Chartier, Mathematics, Davidson College