

Invite you to a special

Evening for Educators

Thursday, March 6, 2014

4:45 – 6:30 pm

Spaugh Professional Development Center (1901 Herbert Spaugh Lane)

Learn about Engaging Curriculum Units for Your Students

Created by CMS Teachers in CTI Seminars for

All grade levels: K-12 – Math, Science, Humanities, Arts and More!

Curriculum Unit Gallery Crawl 4:45-5:15 pm

Enjoy light snacks and view CTI Fellows' Curriculum Unit displays

CTI Curriculum Unit Presentations 5:20-6:30 pm

Science

Physics in Film

Deb Semmler, Physics, East Mecklenburg High School

Exploring the Planets: What If? How Come? And Why?

Julie Ruziska Tiddy, 6th Grade Science, Carmel Middle School

A Sky System – Sun, Earth and Moon

Cindy Woolery, Science, Elizabeth Traditional Elementary School

With CTI Seminar Leader Susan Trammell, Physics, UNC Charlotte

Humanities

Meaning, Mode, Medium: Modernist Musings in Printmaking

Gloria Brinkman, Visual Art, North Mecklenburg High School

Medals, Monuments, and Money

Matthew Kelly, Spanish, Independence High School

Math

Seeing the Fun in Functions

Kristianna Luce, Math, North Mecklenburg High School

Fractions Aren't Freaky

Lyndsay Burns, 4th Grade, David Cox Road Elementary School

* Please register in MyPD using the NEW course number: 13805 *