

EVENING FOR EDUCATORS

Tuesday, October 9, 2018

6:00 – 8:00 p.m.

Discovery Place Education Studio

Presentations are listed alphabetically by the first author's last name.

Art and Chemistry of Light

Michelle Faggert, Science, Martin Luther King Jr. Middle

Mary Hughes, Science/Social Studies, Marie G. Davis Academy

Zach Sanford, Science, W.A. Hough High

Jackie Smith, Forensic Science, W.A. Hough High

Diane Strickland, Visual Art, Garinger High

Tom Schmedake, Chemistry, UNC Charlotte

Makerspace Education: Using Digital Fabrication to Engage Second Grade Learners

Elyse Hiatt, Second Grade, Dorothy J. Vaughan Academy of Technology

Lindsey Scheppergrell, Second Grade, Dorothy J. Vaughan Academy of Technology

My Heritage: Guiding Students on a Path Towards Self Discovery and Personal History

Lacey Holmes, Civics/Economics and Latino American Studies, Garinger High

Using Art as a Method of Social Change

Natalie Jones, Visual Art, West Charlotte High

Graphic Novels: Reading Critically from Texts to Images

Jennifer Ladanyi, Language Arts, Bailey Middle

Monuments & Memorials of the Marginalized

Eboné Lockett, English, CATO Middle College High

National Monument for Peace and Social Justice - Reflective Writing

Megan McGee, Language Arts, McClintock Middle

Evening for Educators is Presented by and

Living Memorials to Spectacular Scientists, Engineers, and Mathematicians

Ted Miracle, Science, Devonshire Elementary

Lynching in America

Latonda Mitchell, 5th Grade, Mountain Island Lake Academy

Solving Big Problems with Tiny Threads: Sustainable Nanotechnology Research

Sandra Ramsey, Environmental Science, West Mecklenburg High

Black Girlhood, Literature, and Community Engagement

Effuah Sam, Theatre Arts, Ranson IB Middle

Dead Men Do Tell Tales: Location, Recovery and Testing of Human Remains

Jackie Smith, Forensic Science, W.A. Hough High

Shedding Light on Cancer: Using Spectral Analysis to Examine the Effects of Thermal and Chemical Damage on Porcine Skin Tissue

Jackie Smith, Forensic Science, W.A. Hough High

Victorians and the Natural World: Colonialism and the Moral Imperative

Todd Statome, IB Philosophy, East Mecklenburg High

American Values in the American Revolution

Pia Townes, Social Studies, Wilson STEM Academy

Synthesis of Lignin-Derived Ionic Liquids and Their Evaluation as Biomass Pretreatment Solvents

Erika Williams, CTE/ Health Science, Phillip O. Berry Academy of Technology

Carla Aaron-Lopez, Art, Whitewater Middle

