

Appendix 1: Implementing Teaching Standards

This Curriculum Unit may be used to support any Grade 10 - 12 High School course to enable students' engagement and to enhance motivation and dedication to achieving their potential.

From World History:

WH.H.2 Analyze ancient civilizations and empires in terms of their development, growth and lasting impact.

WH.H.2.9 Evaluate the achievements of ancient civilizations in terms of their enduring cultural impact.

From Psychology:

12.LC.1 Understand how conditioning, learning, and cognition affect behavior.

12.LC.1.3 Summarize the cognitive factors involved in perception, motivation, emotion, and consciousness.

12.LC.1.4 Use classical conditioning, operant conditioning, and observational learning theories to manage daily problems and improve the quality of life.

12.DE.1 Analyze human development throughout the lifespan.

12.DE.1.4 Use knowledge gained from an analysis of human development to understand personal challenges at different stages of life.

From Sociology:

12.C.1 Understand how culture and its diversity sustain humanity.

12.C.1.3 Explain the influence of values, norms, folkways, cultures and subcultures of the United States.